Housing at DCAD

The Delaware College of Art and Design offers student accommodations at the Saville (located at the corner of Sixth and King Streets) and at 707 N. King Street. Students desiring housing can utilize these units. While there is no college policy stipulating mandatory housing, it is felt that students benefit from closer proximity and better access to college resources and enjoy a deeper relationship with the College community.

Housing is assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. A $200 deposit is required to request a housing assignment. This deposit becomes the security deposit upon registration.

Housing fees are paid in two installments and will appear on the student's tuition statement. After a student moves out of a housing unit at the end of the academic year or final semester, an inspection will identify any damage or special cleaning arrangements required; associated costs will be deducted from the deposit. For more information regarding student housing, please refer to the Student Housing Handbook.

Housing Eligibility

To live in DCAD-sponsored housing, a student must be registered for a minimum of twelve (12) degree credits for any given semester. Enrolled students must maintain a twelve-credit load throughout the semester unless the College advises the student to reduce her or his course load due to academic concerns.
